SECTION 3 - BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS

If you are married, you must name your Eligible Spouse (as defined in the Plan and federal law) as your only beneficiary unless your Eligible Spouse signs the Spouse's Waiver of Death Benefits below in the presence of a Plan (employer) representative or a notary public after you designate the beneficiaries you wish below. Whenever you want to change your beneficiaries, your Eligible Spouse must sign a new waiver unless you name your Eligible Spouse as your only beneficiary. If you are younger than 35 when you name alternative beneficiaries with the consent of your Eligible Spouse, your beneficiary designation will automatically terminate when you attain age 35 and your Eligible Spouse will be your beneficiary unless you again designate alternative beneficiaries with a new signed waiver from your Eligible Spouse.

If you are unmarried, you may name any beneficiaries you wish. If you marry in the future, your beneficiary designation under the retirement plan will be automatically voided. At that time, you should complete Mutual of America's "Beneficiary Designation" form and follow the instructions applicable to married participants.

In the event of your death, and subject to the Eligible Spouse Waiver requirements, the total value of your account will be paid to the person or persons you name as your primary beneficiary. If no one you have named as a primary beneficiary survives you, the person(s) you name as your secondary beneficiary will receive the death benefit. If there is no living designated beneficiary at your death, the amount payable will be paid to the first surviving class of the following: (a) your surviving spouse (as determined under state law), (b) your surviving children in equal shares, (c) your surviving parents in equal shares, (d) your surviving brothers and sisters in equal shares, or (e) the executors or administrators of your estate.

If you name more than one primary beneficiary, or more than one secondary beneficiary, the death benefit will be paid in equal shares to the primary beneficiaries who survive you, or if none, to the secondary beneficiaries who survive you, unless you show below the percentage you want each of them to receive. If you specify percentages you want each beneficiary to receive, be sure your percentages for all beneficiaries in each beneficiary type total 100%.

Name your primary and secondary beneficiaries in the space provided. If you need more space, attach a page showing for each beneficiary the information asked for below.
